CZAR GROWING WEAKER |

The Dispatches from Yalta Grow More Discouraging.

DENUNCIATION OF DR. ZACHARIN.

toth the Public and Professor Leyden Incensed at His Brutal Frankness and Neglect to Order the Czar's Removal to a YALTA, Nov. 1.—The czar suffers fits of uffocation. Yesterday he was unconcious for several hours. The day was sarm and the sky cloudless. Early in the forming his majesty tried to read state spatches, but was too weak. During his iolent fits of coughing particles of lung ere brought away.

The bulletin issued Tuesday night was ot published here until yesterday. It aused a feeling of intense apprehension. was noticed that not one of the doctors attendance upon the czar was seen here, ough usually they are observed walking the streets daily. Everybody coming rom Livadia is assailed with questions, ut nobody is able to give much news.

Dr. Zacharin is everywhere blamed for Is wrong diagnosis and for allowing the isease to go so far before taking his tajesty to a warmer climate. It is alleged hat there has been a serious quarrel beween Professor Leyden and Dr. Zacharin, be former represching his colleague with se czar's illness by his brutal frankness. r. Zarbarin, it is said, retorted angrily, id was only prevented from leaving Lidia by the interference of General cherevin, who threatened to forcibly de-

It is reported that the Prince and Prinss of Wales are coming to Livadia at the ecial request of the ezar. Grand Duke lexis Michaelovitch, cousin of the czar, ho was disgraced and banished to the aucasus several years ago, arrived here cently, wishing to see the ezar and ask s pardon before he died. The czar dened to see him, and the grand duke dearted after seeing his other relatives. The wepspers have been prohibited from entioning the visit until the grand the's father shall have ordered the cento allow the fact to be published. The exar's treatment by his physicians unchanged. He takes digitalis and onite and drinks a great deal of milk. rofe-sors Wilschowski and Wyodzew ave been summoned to Livadia from St. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 1.-A letter re-ived here from Livadia, dated on Monsay-: "The exar is extremely ak and hardly able to walk, but he has ot abandoned hope. He tries to reassure e czarina, who is beside herself with rief and anxiety. His majesty has fre-cent sonnolent fits which he does his most to overcome. He often refuses edicine, and the sentrics outside the arters with a he occupies hear groanings. DE LIN DICK

There is a great deal of feeling against rofes-or Zamaria, whom Professor Leym reproses. - with incapacity and neglithe incremit to pulmum of the ranks iilss. The test ulation of Yalta warmly eet Princess Alax when she drives out th three movits."

The otherst balletin is-ned from Livadia Tobles k hast evening says: "His niejty has taken little nourishment. The ongestion of the left lung continues. reathing is difficult, and the pulse is eak. The ω noral weakness of the patient greatly increased"

The Cook Gang Still at Large. MUSKOGII, I. T., Nov. I.—There are no

w developments in the Cook outlaw sittion. The Indian police have returned ter a week out without making any proess towards locating the gang. All sorts reports are brought in as to their whereouts, but there is no confidence to be it in any of them. The gang has about it depredations, and have scattered in directions There is but little reasonle hope of effecting their capture soon.

A BRAVE MAN LYNCHED

Refused to Betray His Friend Even to Save His Own Life.

PRINCETON, Ky., Nov. 1.— News has reached here of the lynching of Eddy Martin in Crittenden county by a mob variously estimated at from fifty to a huna remote part of the country and the details of the crime are hard to get.

The best obtainable information is that Martin was called up at his home after midnight and asked to get up and help put out a fire that was raging in the neighborhood. On opening the door he was seized by a dezen or more men, who asked for information of Bill Goode, the lawless pauper commissioner of Crittenden county. He was also asked about the latter's crimes. The mob told him they had come to hang him, but if he would turn state's evidence upon Bill Goode he would be spared.

"If these are the only terms, gentlemen, said he, "let the hanging proceed. Bill Goode has been my friend, and I will shield him."

The mob quickly did its work and left the body swaying from a limb upon a lone country road.

The hanging is the result of the lawless acts of the Goode-Rich gang in Crittenden county. Goode, the leader, has been visited three times by a mob, but escaped

Berry Rich was hanged about two weeks ago, and the mob made a raid again last week, but failed to find their man.

JAPAN'S VICTORY ASSURED. The Opinion of a British Government Agent

Returning from China.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .- "I have just been over the road from Moukden to Shan Kwan, and it is as perfect as ever. Not only that, but the road affords every facility for the passing of troops in winter from Corea to the great wall near Pekin. The victory of Japan is a foregone conclusion." said Rev. Maurice J. Walker to a reporter at the Windsor hotel.

Mr. Walker has been stationed in north China by the English government for the last nine years, and passed through Chicago on his way to London to make his report. Rev. John K. Roobison, a missionary from Tienken, accompanied him. They left Pekin about a month ago. Speaking of the war, Mr. Walker said: Japan was obliged to engage in foreign warfare to prevent a repetition of the revolution in 1871 in her own domain. For years she has been preparing herself, not only for that, but she has carefully laid out her campaign in China. For over a year draughtsmen and photographers have traversed every part of China, until the topography of the country is better known in Tokio than in Peking. The Japanese commanders know that the correspondents make a mistake when they say that winter will close the campaign. I have been over the road at Monkden at all seasons of the

Was a Corrupt Mayor.

SHATTLE, Wash., Nov. 1.—In the investgation before the police commissioners of Chief of Police Rogers, on charges pre ferred by John Collins, proprietor of the Scattle Dady Telegraph, Chief Rogers was exonerated of taking bribes or receiving money from gamblers. but ex-Mayor Harry White was exposed by Governor John H. McGraw as having resigned to avoid publication of the charges that he owned an inverest in a gambling game while mayor and of accepting bribes from gamblers for police protection. White himself confessed on the stand that he allowed the ordinances to be violated, and declared he should have been impeached Murdered by Masked Robbers.

EVANS CITY, Pa., Nov. 1. - An aged farmer named John Kouse was killed by two masked men at his residence, one and a half incles east of this city, last night. Kouse was supposed to keep some money about the house. The strangers entered without giving any alarm. The old gentleman was sitting near the fire, and his wife and daughter were in the room at ths time. One of the men commanded Kouse to hold up his hands, but instead of doing so he reached his hand out for the poker. As he did so he was shot in the heart and instantly killed. The masked men then beata hasty retreat.

Charged with Libeling Mayor Hopkins. CHICAGO, Nov. 1. - John R. Tanner, chairman of the Republican central committee, was arrested last evening on a warrant sworn out by Mayor Hopkins, charging him with having committed criminal libel in making the assertion in campaign literature that Mayor Hopkins had "levid blackmail on the vices of the city." Mr. Tanner waived examination. and was held to the criminal court in bonds of $300, which was promptly furnished. Mayor Hopkins insists that the case be heard this week, and Mr. Tanner says the mayor is "bluthing." A Haby's Life Saved.

WALTON, N. Y., April 14, 1894 .-When my baby was six months old she was taken very badly with diarrhœs. A doctor came every day for a week. Baby got worse, until she could notice nothing at all. I got so worried I called on our druggists and he recommended Dr. Hand's Diarrhœa Mixture. I got it and just one-half a bottle cured my baby and saved her life.

SHEEHAN VERY ANGRY.

The Commissioner Denounces Lawyer Coff as a Liar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 .- Yesterday's proceedings before the senate police investigating committee were marked by a succession of exciting incidents. Police Commissioner Sheehan was on the witness stand all through the day, except for a brief time while his successor in the city comptrollership of Buffalo was examined as to the condition in which he found the accounts of the city when they were turned over to him. Mr. Sheehan appeared in the court room with his bank book, but when Mr. Goff asked that it be submitted to the committee for examination the commissioner from Chairman Lexow that such refusal would result in a presentment to the grand jury. He said he would submit this book when a specific accusation was made against him, but not till then. His bank account, he claimed, was his own affair.

Mr. Goff led off with an intime, i in that the commissioner had accepted a bribe of $6,000 for an appointment to a sergeant-ship of police, which was hotly denied by Mr. Sheehan-so hotly that Chairman Lexow thought it necessary to admonish him that he was laying himself open to proceedings for contempt. Senator Cantor added to the interest of the moment by questioning the right of the chairman to insist upon a question until the committee had taken a vote on it. In the closing scene Mr. Goff worked up a climax by denouncing Mr. Sheehan as a bribe taker, grand larcenist and defaulter. "You're a liar!" was the response of the commissioner, and with that the curtain was rung down for the day.

The Georgia Senatorship.

ATLANTA, Nov. 1 .- The nomination of United States senator by party caucus will be a new feature in Georgia politics. The presence of fifty Populists in the legislature makes this necessary. The seat vacant is that of the late Senator Colquitt, filled temporarily by Hon. Patrick Walsh. The candidates before the legislature are Hon. A. O. Bacon, Hon. H. G. Turner, Hon. F. L. Garrard and Hon. Patrick Walsh. Deadlock is almost certain to ensue in caucus, in which event Speaker Crisp is likely to stampede it. The four announced candidates have been addressing the legislature nightly since Friday

Boxes at the Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.-The sale of the boxes of the annual horse show was held yesterday afternoon at Madison Square Garden. Fully 500 representative New Yorkers attended. The bidding was somewhat slow. The first box was knocked down to George Gould for $300. The sale netted $34.270 and averaged $350 a box, as regainst $80,000 last year. Among the more prominent purchasers were: William C. Whitney, Frederick Bronson, A. J. Cassatt, W. E. D. Stokes, W. L. Strong, John M. Bowers, Henry Sloan, C. Oliver Israel, W. Stewart Webb and F. G. DeHautville.

Reducing Railroad Laborers' Wages.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 1.-A notice was posted in the Lehigh Valley shops at Weatherly informing the men that commencing today a reduction of 20 per cent. in their wages would be made. There have been two reductions within a year at this shop. The order was reseinded last night and another was issued reducing the laboring force on the road 30 per cent. Fiftyone men have been suspended on the Hazleton and Beaver Meadow divisions.

China's Empress a Suicide.

SHANGHAL Nov. 1 - It is asserted that the young empress of China, Yo-Ho-Na-La. whose death is announced, committed suicide. It is declared that she was rebuked by the emperor, who slapped her in the face, whereupon she took poison. Yo-Ho-Na-La was a little Manchu maiden of 13 when, five years ago, she was married to the 18-year-old emperor against her will and against his, and the married life of the young couple has been most unhappy

Three Miners Killed-

NANTICORE, Pa., Nov. 1.-William Jones and George Buckland, miners, were drowned by a rush of water from an old working, while they were cleaning up an old gaugway in the mines of the Delaware. Lackawanna and Western company on the Hanover and Nanticoke town line. George Jones, also a miner, was killed by a fall of rock in the mines of the same company at Auchincloss. He leaves a wife and six children.

Ravages of Hog Cholera.

JANESVILLE, Wis., Nov. 1.—The hog cholera is raging with fearful fatality in the county. Hundreds of hogs are dving in a few hours after the disease is noticed. State Veterinary Surgeon Frank G. Toussant claims to have a sure remedy for hog cholera. He inoculated a horse, and three hours later killed the animal, feeding the careass to discused bogs. He claims that the hogs will recover after eating this in oculated meat.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with norelief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me mere good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life, I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." ranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

OVER A HUNDRED LOST.

Passenger Steamer Wrecked on the New Zealand Coast.

LIFEBOAT SMASHED OR CAPSIZED.

A Number of the Passengers and Crew Rescued by Life Rafts and the Breeches Buoy-The Captain of the Vessel Among Those Who Were Lost.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Nov. 1 She Union line steamer Wairarapa, bound from this port for Auckland, N. Z., was wrecked on Sunday night on Great Barrier Island, off the northeast coast of New Zealand. The steamer had a large number of passengers. and 111 of them were drowned. The num ber of the saved is not positively known, but among the rescued are some of the

The night was very dark, and the officers and lookout on the steamer were ignorant of the proximity of land until the steamer struck on the rocks. Captain Mc Intosh, the master of the Wairarapa, was on the bridge at the time. He, together with most of the crew, was lost. The sea was rough when the steamer went aground. Attempts were made to lower some of the lifeboats, but several of these were either smushed by being thrown by the sea against the side of the steamer before the falls were east off, or were capsized before they could be laid head on to the sea. Everybody in the boats perished. Those remaining on board refused to attempt to escape this way.

In the meantime the people on shore had gone to the assistance of the ship-wrecked people. The steamer had two or three life rafts, and these were thrown overboard, but attached to the vessel by stout lines. Then some of the passengers scrambled down the side by the aid of ropes and dropped upon the rafts, which were then cut loose. They drifted rapidly in to shore and the people on them were taken off when they came in reach by men who went out in the water as far as possi-

A line was finally thrown across the steamer and the breeches buoy rigged. A number of lives were saved by this means. Altog-ther 111 of the passengers and twenty three of the crew were drowned. The survivors have arrived at Auckland

All the bones are in an excellent state of preservation. It is believed that the entire skeleton will be found.

Ambassador Runyon's Protest.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.-The prohibition by Germany of the importation of American cattle has led to a lively exchange of views between Hon. Theodore Runyon, the American ambassador, and Baron Mar schal Von Bieberstein, the German for eign minister. Mr. Runyon characterized the order as severe, unjust and unneces sary retaliation against the duties imposed by the United States on German beet roo sugar. Baron Von Bieberstein admitted the severity of the order, but said that Germany would not barter the soundness of her cattle for a prospective lowering of

THREE RAILROADERS KILLED.

A Fast Express Crashes Into a Freight Engine at Foster, Pa.

SCHANTON, Pa., Nov. 1 .- An express train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, north bound, running at the rate of forty miles an hour, dashed into a freight engine at Foster, twenty-seven miles north of here. Three persons were

A coal train engine was backing down the south bound track and by reason of an open switch passed on to the north bound track just as the fast flying train came along. The coal train crew consisted of Engineer James Lynott, of this city, and Fireman Elmer Scull, of Moscow. The former was instantly killed, and Scull died at the hospital here of his injuries.

The express train engineer was Valentine Butler, of Binghamton, and his fireman was William O. Hosey, of the same city. Hosey was instantly killed, but Butler crawled out from beneath the wreck of the two engines with scarcely a bruise. No passengers were injured...

MRS. DRAYTON'S ANSWER. A General Denial of Her Husband's Charges of Infidelity.

TRENTON, Nov. 1 .-- The answer in the James Coleman Drayton divorce suit was filed late yesterday afternoon. Mrs Drayton denies the charges of marital infidelity made by her husband, and accuses him of having deserted her without cause. The answer is filed in her behalf by E. V. Lindaburg, of Elizabeth.

Mrs. Drayton denies that she left her husband while they were temporarily sojourning in London in January, 1892, but that he left her through cruel and unjust suspicion as to her marital fidelity. Mrs. Drayton makes specific denial of each and every paragraph in her husband's bill charging her with adultery with Hallett Alsop Barrowe, and says that she never was guilty of adultery with Borrowe or any other person. On the contrary, she says, she has always faithfully regarded her marriage vow, and bas always been a true and faithful wife.

Mistaken for a Burglar and Killed. HARRISBURG, Nov. 1.—A special from Elizabethville. Dauphin county, says: John R. Engelbert, manager of a coal and fron company in Tennessec, who was home on a vacation, approached the house of Urish Koppenheffer, at Rife, and asked to be allowed to enter. No one was at home save Edward, Mr. Koppenheffer's son, and he told him he could not enter. Engelbert insisted, and was told he would be shot if he attempted to get in. During the controversy the door opened. Engelbert had a cap on made out of a white handkerchief, and rushed in crying: "I am a whitecap." Edward fired as he entered the shot taking effect near the left shoulder, killing him instantly. Koppenheffer supposed Engelbert to be a burglar. The deceased leaves a widow and two children.

A FIEND'S CONFESSION.

Two Men Sawed a Railroad Bridge to Cause a Wreck.

THEIR OBJECT WAS TO PLUNDER.

Expected to Kill All the Passengers and Train Crew and Then Loot the Expression Car-One Man Was Killed, and They Must Answer for Murder.

MERRILL, Wis., Nov. 1.--Wholesal murder and express robbery was the mo tive that inspired the recent train wreckin on the "Soo" road. Two men charged with the murder of the man who lost hi life by their work were given a prelimin ary hearing here yesterday and were held for trial. One of the prisoners confessed, and his story details the methods pursued to derail the through Minneapolis-Boston limited near Hereford Junction on the

In the crash Fireman Charles Cottrill was instantly killed and Engineer James Dutch seriously injured. The plan was to cause a wreck that would kill every person on the train and then rob the safe in the express car, as it was supposed the safe contained a large sum of money. The man who confessed is Levitt Hazleton, about 20 years old, claiming to be a resident of Brainerd, Minn. His companion is Frank Williams, who claims to have relatives and friends at Appleton, Wis. Williams stoutly denies that he knows anything of the wreck.

The officers traced the men from Minne apolis to this city. On Sept. 21 they broke into and stole an oil coat and overcoat at the tool house at Prentice. That night they sawed a bridge near that place, but owing to the short time in which they had to do the work it was not complete, and the train passed safely over it.

The men were arrested on Oct. 11, and were sentenced for thirty days for carrying concealed weapons. Last Wednesday they were taken before Court Commissioner Helm and charged with the murder of Fireman Charles Cottrill. They pleaded not guilty, and their examination was set for yesterday. Last Friday Hazleton signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Kleutze, notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Payser, District Attorney Anderson and F. X. Holze. Hazleton

"About dark we set to work with the purpose of wrecking a passenger train so that we could rob the express car. We expected the wreck to be much worse than it was. We expected that the cars would be all thrown from the track, smashed up and the passingers and train crew all killed, so that we would have no one to prevent us from accomplishing our purpose. We thought mostly of the money we could get, and not the loss of life.

"We began work west of the center of the bridge. We cut all the stringers across the bridge and two sets of them at the ends and then sawed the piles or posts upon which they rested. We also cut a brace. After a train passed over we sawed the. out like post and the other brace, took the bolts out of the fish plates, pulled the spikes next to the fish plates and removed the bolts from the fish plates at each end of the rail. We waited at the east end of the bridge until the west bound passenger train came and broke through the bridge. We were on the south side of the track at the east end of the bridge when the crash

"Then we walked westward to the point where the wreck was. We heard some one crying: 'Are you hurt?' The other man answered. 'A little' Then we heard some one crying out again. We did not want to hear more. A man was coming toward us, and that scared us. We walked away and went pretty near to the next town on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul track, and went into a hay barn. We remained there three days and then started for Merrill."

The California Train Wreckers. WOODLAND, Cal., Nov. 1.-The trial for murder of S. G. Worden, one of the five A. R. U. men under arrest for having caused the railroad accident which resulted in the death of Engineer Clark and four United States soldiers during the recent strike, developed a sensation yesterday. C. J. Stillwell, a private detective, testified to an alleged confession, which was produced in Worden's handwriting, in which the prisoner confessed complicity in the crime and implicated the other men arrested. Worden in his statement says the train wreckers were given the dynamite which they used to shatter the bridg. by Compton, a member of the mediation committee.

Looks Like a Brutal Murder. VANCOUVER, Nov. 1.-It is believed that the boat besincared with blood found at Douglass last week, with a woman's shawl in it, is connected with a tragedy. Two weeks ago a man named Curry eloped from Mission City with the wife of G Ross, of that place. The woman had $600 in her possession, and took her three children with her. Curry, who had i sided with the Ross family, was a butche and took his implements with him. I the boat were found a cleaver and a but cher's saw Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev.J.Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was taken down with pneumonia, succeeding lagripre. Terrible paroxyams of coughing would last hours with little interruption, and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly estisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at McMonagie and Rogers' Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1,00.

GRATIFYING SIGNS OF RETURN-ING PROSPERITY.

Restoration of Public Confidence and More Liberal Investments Are the Aiparent Results of the New Tariff-Reports from All Quarter

Comptroller of the Currency Eckels "The last call for a statement from the national banks was made on the 2d. It showed an increase in reserve cities since July 18 of $38,000,000 of loans and discounts. We estimate that, in addition to this, there was an increase of $20,000,000 in outside cities. It was not confined to the financial centres, but seemed to come from every part of the country, indicating a very general and healthy revival. Compared with the statement of one year ago, however, the increase is phenomenal-more than $150,000,000. All this indicates a restoration of public confidence and more liberal investments."

The Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central railroad, made the following remarks at the annual meeting of the National Wholesale Druggists Association in New York city. You will find them printed in the American Druggist of October 11. Mr. Depew said:

"For the first time in my experience of railroading, extending over a period of thirty years, I find that the westbound traffic is superior on all our lines to the east-bound traffic. Stated as a bold fact, that means nothing. But analyzed, it means that business is reviving marvelously. This excess in west-bound shipments means that enormous stocks of manufactured goods are going out for distribution. It means that prosperity is returningthat the little stores throughout the West are filling up their shelves for a big fall trade."

The Wool and Cotton Reporter, the authority on textiles, tells a story of unprecedented prosperity in the woollen mills. They have been springing into activity under the impulse of the free raw material It mentions seventy-three new mills, 123 enlargements and improvements, and 142 mills which had been idle starting up. This is the record of the first six weeks of relief from McKinleyism. The nearer we approach election day the more ridiculous does the "calamity howl" appear.

The Chicago Dry Goods Reporter

savs: "In comparisons of fall trade in the Chicago market 1893 is no longer considered. It is with the 1892 season, the best season up to that time on record, that comparison is now made. Averaging the reports of the three large houses in this market it is safe to say that in tonnage this season of 1894 is already ahead of the corresponding time of the season two years ago. Trade still continues remarkably well sustained and the managers are not so sure but when the season is wound up the amount in dollars and cents will also eclipse 1892, in spite of the big slump in prices. No matter as to that, this fall season is already an assured success beyond all expectations.

A letter from Graham, N. C., gives an encouraging report of the cotton manufacturing industry in Alamance county. With but one exception, all of the nineteen cotton factories in Alaming full wages, and some of them are making extra time at night to keep up with orders. One factory proprietor was forced to reject an order which would have required his full output till Christmas. Large additions are now being made to several of the fac-tories, which will increase their capacity 20 per cent. Similar reports of progress in cotton manufacturing come from other sections of the South. In Danville, Va., the capital stock of the Riverside cotton mills has just been increased from $1,500,000 to $1,800,000, the additional $300,000 of stock having been quickly subscribed by the stock-

The Troy (N. Y.) Press says. Signs of the return of prosperity are everywhere apparent. The late report of the Vermont State Inspector of Finance shows that the bank deposits have been steadily increasing of late in that State, an indication of better times. Word comes from Western Massachusetts that all the industries in that section are running on full time, and that the wages of employees have been increased in several instances. Up in the thriving village of Mechanicville the mills are running to their full capacity, and in Stillwater they are being run over-time. Additions are being constructed to the immense plant of the Hudson River Water Power and Paper Company in the former place. In Ballston ground was broken this week for a big addition to the tannery of Haight & Vassar, one of the largest in the country, and the output will be increased as soon as it is possible to complete the necessary conveniences, giving employment to more hands. The immense paper and bag mills in Ballston, owned by ex-Congressman George West, are being operated day and night to keep up with the demand, and several new machines are about to be put up in his extensive paper bag mill on the THE GREATEST OF ALL AMERICAN Kayaderosseras Creek.

Further up country the most favorable intelligence comes from Glens Falls, Ticonderoga and other manufacturing villages, where in many of the industries operations are carried on to the extreme limit of capabilities. In Hoesick Falls business shows a healthy development. In Bennington, Vt., most of the industries are reported to be in a more prosperous condition than they have been in at least fifteen months before. Stocks have become depleted and the consumers must have winter goods; consequently the manufacturers must produce them and many hands must be employed. Some mills are running night and day. In Troy, Cohoes and other places near by prosperity is too evident to need any detailed comment. The fact is that all the conditions of trade throughout this section of the country give the living lie direct to the howls of the calamity organs. The people have not waited for something to turn up; they have turned it up.

country than many people imagine. A material change in the condition of the iron market almost always indicates a corresponding change in other mar-kets and in business generally. Iron is a trade thermometer. The stove foundries of St. Louis are all in full blast and have been for some time. The hardware business has improved a great deal. The greatest increase in this line has probably been in builders' hardware, indicating a revival of our last year's building activity. Iron and steel implements and machines and machinery of all kinds are selling better than they did a month, six months or a year ago. In fact, the business is about as good as it has ever been in the past.

Here in St. Louis our iron works and manufactories that use iron are running, with scarcely a single exception. One concern has just closed a contract for 3,000 tons of sixty-pound rails for the San Antonio and Gulf Shore railroad. The same company, too, has received orders this month for rails for several street car companies in Southern cities and for two or three lumber companies. The boiler and engine manufacturing companies are all busy and the same may be said of the establishments for the manufacture of saws, steel brushes, wire, planing machines, various other kinds of woodworking machines, agricultural implements and numerous other articles wholly or in part from iron.

This is the situation in St. Louis, and the great increase in the production and consumption of raw iron mdicates that a similar condition of affairs will soon prevail, if it does not now, in all the great manufacturing and trade centres of the country.

COUDERT'S TRIBUTE TO HILL

At the Rusiness Men's Democratic Association Meeting in New York The Hon. Frederick R. Coudert said:

"It is not the Republican party we are fighting now. We are accustomed to fight them and to beat them too. (Applause.) There is a class of men whom we cannot meet in open field and stab in the breast because they wear our uniform and have stood shoulder to shoulder with us in many a well-fought battle. These are the men who now, when the fortunes of the Democracy are trembling in the balance, listen to the still, small, evil voice of their own poor, petty, personal prejudice, and say: We are nonpartisan.' Who can describe what a non-partisan is? (A voice: A Mugwump.') Who has ever seen one? How is a naturalist with his microscope to define his qualities? If there is a man here who can describe a non-partisan beside myself (laughter) let him get up and do it. I can do it. A non-partisan is a Republican who thinks that a Democrat ought to vote the Republican ticket. (Yells of delight and cheers.) Sometimes, also, the Democrat listens to the song of the giren There is our danger.

"We have a champion who has made a fight, the bravest, brightest, most brilliant fight I have ever known. Men do not command success; the gods give it. But brave men do their best. If we fail, let us fail with honor and with dignity. We should not fail, and we shall not fail, unless by secession from our own ranks. Many of you are too young to know how the older men of us have labored in the cause. We have built the house. It is almost finished. It has cost us much time and labor and hard toil, and it is consecrated with the sweat of honest effort. And now must it fall because those we have called our friends desert us?" ("No! No!")

"This should not be a question of personal likes and party dislikes. It is a question of principle and party honor. I love no man so much that I would sacrifice my principles to him. I hate no man so much that I will not help him when he strives to help my country and my cause. The Democratic party, the lover and savior and constant ally of the people, is our cause. The man who falters here forgets his flag in his hatred of the bear-This is not statesmanship; it is not patriotism, it is personality run mad. (Tremendous cheering.) I told you that I should make a short speech. ("No; no." "Go on." "Don't stop.") I always stop when an audience wants me to go on. I close with an entreaty that one and all of you stand by the flag; our Democratic flag that leads the way to honor and greatness and personal and commercial freedom. We have the victory in our hands. If we choose to fling it away let us not blame the gods.'

A tumult second only to that which greeted Senator Hill followed Mr. Coudert's speech. Everywhere were heard comments that it was just what was needed, and would do great good in bringing the wavering ones into Senator Hill, half turning toward Mr. Coudert, said, slowly and very earnestly: "I desire to express my hearty thanks to those who have heretofore differed from me and are recognized friends of the Administration (cheers and cries of 'Cleveland' Cleveland!'), and who now are supporting the whole Democratic ticket, (Cheers.) I appreciate it, and I embrace this opportunity to express my obligation to them. Before the nomination every Democrat was in duty bound to fight for his choice in the convention. My opponents fought so and their opposition was honorable and fully justifiable within party lines. The strifes of other years have left no bitterness in my heart. (Applause.) I have no resentments to gratify, no enemies to punish, and no favorites to reward. (Applause.) If your choice shall be ratified at the polls I shall enter again the office of Governor untrammelled by a single pledge inconsistent with tho welfare of the people. It is my earnest desire to harmonize and build up and strengthen the Democratic party in every respect, that it may be strong for subserving the good of the people. (Loud cheering.) I have no other ambition. I bear no malice toward those who think that they cannot conscientiously support me, and I only regret that the blow aimed at me will injure the party more than it will me. In a spirit of genuine magnanimity, I am prepared to forgive my enemies and persecutors and slanderers. I will not enter here upon any defence of my course in the seven years of my administration, but will take up the questions of the day."

TO KILL HORSE BREEDING WOULD IMPOVERISH ALL CLASSES.

The Farmer Would Suffer First, Then the Merchant-Frominent Men of All Grades Speak About Section 9 of the Constitutional Americanents.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—If your section of the state is as worked up over the question of the constitutional amendments which will be submitted to voters next Tuesday as New Yorkers are, there is no question that the block of them containing section 9, which inflicts a deathblow to all the trotting and breeding interests of the state, will be snowed under. The agricultural population will suffer far more than the city folks, but the latter feel that their rights and liberties are involved. The passage of section 9 would entail absolute ruin on many, but the evil would not stop there, for, in the opinion of keen sighted men, every section of our community would suffer financially.

I happened to run across a gentleman, resident in Monroe county and of international reputation in connection with trotters, on Newspaper row, the other day. I only wish we had a few hundred like him to point out to voters what the situation really is. Said he: "I have voted the straight Republican ticket every time. I have gone to the polls and shall vote the Republican ticket this year, but vote for that constitutional amendment—not by a long sight! Not only that, but I m going up home trnight, and I'm going to let all other business go by the board till election day and drive around and tell my neighbors what the thing means to them.

"What, vote to kill the breed of horses that has made the farmer rich and given more genuine pleasure to millions than any other form of recreation you can name! It's absurd! I don't believe the question of politics will enter into the matter at all. It affects our rights and our pockets, and it seems impossible that any farmer who realizes that the passage of the amendment will kill the county fair and take so many dollars out of his pocket each year will vote for it, no matter what his political creed may be."

The point was well taken in an interview I had with a prominent merchant, a gentleman who is up to his eyes in the business life of the metropolis, and though a pronounced Republican is widely known as taking a clear and unbiased view ci

"As I am situated," he said, "my personal interest in horses amounts to little. I am one of the busiest men in this busy city, and while I have horses in my stable for the use of my wife and family I rarely have the chance to sit behind them. But I look at the matter from a business standpoint. It is the farmer who will be the chief sufferer. A moderate estimate of the money invested in horse breeding in this state is $100,000,000. Good judges and my own judgment tell me that this will be depreciated at least 50 per cent. In other words, $50,000,000 will be lost to the community.

"Now, though this loss will fall primarily on the farmer, it will react on me in my business and the business of every merchant in the state. The farmer will lose all his profits on breeding horses, and the price of his hay, grain and roots will fall off very largely, and not only will be be impoverished himself, but we shall all feel it. It is not really a question of polities at all, and for my own port I cannot conceive what induced the delegates to the convention to pass such a meas-

Every man you meet has some fresh argument to advance against the amendment. One view taken is sound. In the civil war the south had an enormous advantage over the north in the early days of the struggle in possessing a great supply of well bred horses. Veterans of the war do not require to be told what this meant and how much it prolonged the struggle. The rassage of the amendment would so injure the breeding industry, not only in this state, but throughout the Union, since New York state regulates the entire horse market, that it would soon become impossible to mount our cavairy or horse our artillery on a plane equal to that of any possible enemy.

The moral, apart from the economical, view of the case has probably received more attention in the country than here. However, the New York Times, a paper of unimpeachable character, bad an excellent editorial the other day in which it was pointed out that we already have a law which works excellently, so regulating and restricting betting that it has ceased to be an evil.

Oddly enough, at the very time this matter is on every one's lips there comes to this country from England a gentleman who, though a clergyman, has long been known as an earnest advocate of racing. This is Dean Hole, who is giving a series of lectures to gain a sum to be expended in the restoration of Rochester cathedral. The dean is a genial, cultured gentleman, known far and wide for his sincere piety, and he deprecates the idea that racing is sinful. 'It is the finest, healthiest recreation in the world." he said the other day, "and I hope I may see the day when it will be recognized as no more harmful than our English cricket or your baseball."

The county fair associations, which will receive $113,600 through the state comptroller's office this year, will find they have a much harder row to hoe if the amendment is passed, while even with such revenue they could not afford to continue without harness racing. The farmer will not only lose his income, but a great proportion of his pleasure.

Dealers, of course, feel the thing keenly. A man who stands at the top of the trade put it forcibly and shortly the other

"Why, you've only got to look at what has already happened to see what we may come to," he said. What with trolley and cable cars being introduced the demand for business horses has already failen to a point where no profit can be made by producer or middleman. The pleasure horse isn't selling like he used to either, and no wonder, for I read the other day that $10,000,000 were paid for new blcycles last year. I don't think I am outside the limit when I say that the value of these two classes of horses has fallen 30 to 40 per cent. This has sent the farmer to breeding blooded stock, and if the amendment becomes law the slump in the market will be such as we have never

There certainly is no cause for wonder that people are becoming a armed when a practical man talks that way. However, I share the idea of most of the men I meet who have given any attention to the concent a view of the matter that it may sate's be left to the intelligence of the voters to defeat a measure which will impoverish not one class in the commu- | M. X. nity, but every one. TOWNSMAN.

CHLOROFORM ON A POLE-New Jersey Burglars Try a New Way of Using Anæsthetics,

At Rutherford, N. J., Tuesday night, burglars, who may perhaps know something about burgling but who are not up in the use of anæsthetles, saturated a sponge with chloroform, attached it to a pole and raised it to the open window of a room occupied by two school teachers, evidently expecting that they would be over come by the fumes of the drug, and it would be possible to go through their room in safety. Needless to say the plan did not work, for not enough chloroform got into the room to do any harm.

It was most fitting that Senator Hill availed himself, yesterday, of the opportunity afforded to remind the people of this city of how staunch a friend of the Middletown State Hospital he has always been. No Governor, since the founding of that institution, as its managers cannot but bear testimony, has given it such cheerful, such large and generous aid, as be.

Some of the Republican organs that failed to show much respect for James G. Blaine, living, are now lugging his cadaver into this campaign and printing an alleged prophecy of his in regard to prospective ruin un_ der Democratic rule. The only au. thentic prediction made by Mr. Blaine in respect to the tariff was that the McKinley bill wouldn't open a market for another bushel of wheat or another barrel of pork, and it didn't.

If Gabriel Tuthill had not been among the first to respond to President Lancoln's call for troops, had not re-enlisted and remained in the service until the close of the war and had not risen, because of bravery and meritorious service, from the ranks to a lieutenancy, there might be some point to the prominence that the Republican papers are giving Adam Beakes's army record. As it is army honors are easy as between the two candidates, and it is not strange, threfore, that generous, big hearted, open handed Gabe Tuthill, who is the friend of all humanity 365 days in the year, is winning votes daily,

A St. Louis dispatch, yesterday afternoon, says: "McKinley has abandoned his intended trip down the Mississippi owing to low stage of water, and has started for New York." Ain't enough water in the river to float McKinlay, eh? Come, this is altogether too thin; is a yarn too tough for even marines to swallow. This sudden and precipitate change of McKinley's programme can have but one interpretation Morten's September certainty of victory is petering out. It is the old despairing cry of "Help me. Cassius. or I sink," that is burrying the Ohio Governor back to the Empire State David has got 'em on the run.

Judge Beattie has put himself on record as in favor of blg pay for little work, for has declared time after time the the salary of the County Julge, and works only a few weeks in the year, ought to be raised from $1,500 to $3,000. If Judge Beattie is elected is there any reason for believing that the scheme to increase his salary will not be revived, put through the Legislature in spite of popular protest, and $1,500 a year added without reason or justice to the taxpayers of Orange county? The wisest way is to take no chances. John C. I: Taylor will make as good a County Judge as Judge Beattle. He is a good lawyer, a man of brains and high character. He is not a salary grabber. He believes that $1,500 is ample salary for the County Judge. If elected he will ask for no increase The people may rely on that. Vote for him.

DEATH TO THE MOTORMAN.

So Threatens An Angry Husband if Any More Kisses Are Thrown at His Wife. Captain Rockwell, manager of the electric road, received, a few days ago, an anonymous letter from an indignant husband, complaining of a motorman who, he claims, throws kisses at his wife every time the car passes the house.

Of course the Captain can not ascertain the truthfulness of the charge made, as the writer of the letter gives neither name nor address, for, as he says, "I don't want it to get into the newspapers."

The writer says that there will be a dead motorman on that car unless the unwelcome attentions to his wife cease at once, and warns the Captain that unless he wants his car "to be tun by a dead motorman," he had better "call the man down at once."

Mrs. Mulock during her long life has enjoyed the very best of health having never had a severe iliness. She attended church last Sunday and parcook of communion, and until last night was in the enjoyment of her usual good health. She ate her supper, last night, with her usual appetite, and soon afterward complained of feeling ill. Her symptoms were similar to those of £t. tacks she had occasionally had. Medicines were given, but without effect, and she passed a restless night.

She kept her bed, this morning, and shortly before noon asked to be transferred to the lounge. She died a few minutes after the change was made.

Mrs. Mulock was born in the town of Minisink and was the daughter of Ashbel and Sylvia Stevens Cadwell. In 1812 she married Zavin King. Six children were born to them, of whom two survive, Mrs. Sophia M., wife of E. R. Harding, and Thomas King, of Council Bluffs, Ia.

Mighty interesting reading the recent report of a State Dairy and Food Commissioner! The mask of deception is torn from so many articles posing as pure!

For instance, one brand of Beef, Iron and Wine made by a manufacturer, who labels it with the local druggist's name if de-ired, was a concoction of Alcohol, weter and Hean flavored, BUT CONTAINING NO BEEF. Some of that stuff has been offered to the dealers in this city. Who bought it? Beware of Beef, Iron and Wine sold for less village, Tuesday morning. than good materials would cost. us, and bearing our label, is made in our Laboratory from fine Imported Sherry Wine, Catrate I on and pure Extract Baef. IT CON-TAINS NO SALCYLIC AUID! It is useful in debility and acceptable to a delicate stomach. Its formula is open to any reputable physician. Another fraud was Cod Liver Oil adulterated with Cotton Seed Oil! What do you think of that for a sick person. Much of the stuff called "Emulsion" is nothing but Cod Liver Oil converted into Soft Soap by adding alkalies, made by some large manufacturer, who puts the retail druggist's name on it Our Cod Liver Oil whether in Emulsion or as clear oil, is guaran teed finest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil-absolutely pure. It is worth your while to remember this. Our Emulsion Crd Liver Oil is made in our own Laboratory, so our claims for it are facts based on knowledge.

A ROYAL CREETING TO SENATOR HILL

An Hour's Notice of a Ten Minute Speech Gathers a Large Crowd at the Erle Station-Hearty Cheers and Great Enthusiasm -The Senator's Speech.

Although barely an hour's notice was giv n of the fact that arrangements had been made to hold train 30 for ten minutes at the Erie station, last night, and give Senator Hill a chance to speak to the people of Middletown, a crowd of 1,200 or 1,-500 persons (if we estimated on the liberal scale that the Press did in regard to the Depew meeting, we would say 2 000) gathered to hear him; and this in spite of the fact that rain began to fall just at the time the crowd began to assemble.

The train pulled down so that the rear coach was opposite the station platform, pnd the crowd closed in about it. When Senator Hill appeared he was greeted with round after round of cheers. He needed no introduction to the people of Middletown and at once began to speak. His first words were the signal for another round of cheers, but time was too precious to be wasted and he raised his hand for silence and contiqued his address.

The crowd was full of enthusiaem that the falling rain could not dampen and every point made by Senator Hill was the signal for hearty cheer-

Republicans of a certain class seem to regard it as a duty and a privilege to "shoot off their mouths" on all occasions and under all circumstances, and it has come to pass, therefore, that no out-of-doors Democratic meeting is complete without an interruption from some Republican with more mouth than brains. This fellow was on hand, yesterday afternoon. He stood on the north side of the car, not far from the speaker, and on two occasions yawped out senseless and insuiting interruptions. Senator Hill's speech was as fol-

FELLOW CITIZENS AND FRIENDS:-I thank you for this splendid impromptu greeting. I am sorry that gou have to come in the rain to meet me, but you can stand this rain a creat deal better than you can the reign of the Republican party.

Mr. Depew in his speech here, this morning, said that the hard times through which the country has been passing are the result of Democratic maladministration and Democratic tariff reform. It is not so. The con-ditions which made hard times possible were the result of Republican merule and vicious Republican leg islation. We've seen the worst of the hard times, however. From every side come ridings of reviving industries and returning prosperity. I nave heard, to-day, good reports of the revival of all your local indusries. Good times are coming everywhere. Our country is not going to

Two bills, passed by a Republican Cougress and signed by a Republican President did more harm to the country's business interests, did more to eneck its prosperity and to destroy confidence than any legis lation of the century. I refer to the Sherman silver bill and the McKinloy tariff hill. They bankrupted the treasury, sent gold out of the country and precipitated the panic of Their repeal marks a new era in our State and country and makes permanent prosperity possible. No, my friends, the Democratic party is vot respons ble for the hard times. The seeds of financial disaster were sown by Republican maladministration and recklessly victou- registation usfore the Democratic party came into power. The hard times were upon us before a single Democratic measure had been enacted. Give the Democratic party a chance and it will show you the way to individual well being and permanent national prosperity.

I spoke in Port Jervis, this afternoon, to many of the Democrats of Deerpark and Sullivan county. have an idea that many Pike county Democrats were there too. You see they have no show in that Stare and like to come over into the sunlight, for I tell you that in spite of the premature boasts of the Republicans, the skies are bright and growing orighter with the promise of victory. You know our Rapublican friends have a way of winning their elections in September and October. We prefør to win cure in November.

In a way, I consider myself the fether of your city. It was my privilege, while Governor, to sign the bill which made Middletown a city. I remember, too, that during my admin istration, your spacious armory was secured to you. I remember, too, that while I was Governor it was my privilege to approve of many additions and improvements to the State Hospital which stands on yonder hill Remembering these things, I have a personal interest in Middletown's growth, and I rejoice in its advancement and continued prosperity.

I am thankful to the people of Middletown for the cordial support they have given me in the past. I thank you in advance for the support I see you intend to give me now. In this campaign I do not rely on leaders. I have no banking houses in New York and Lindon on which to draw, I have no secret oath-bound organization to work in my behalf. A poor man myself, I have no money with which to advance my carvass. I rely on the plain people and on the workingmen, and relying on them, I know that I will not be defeated. You know what I have done to advance the interests of labor; it is a matter of record.

We will win, next week. I have faith in the people. They will stand by the Democratic party, the party of the people in all its fights against organized monopoly and aggrandized greed; the consumers party, which has given the people lower prices for the necessaries of life, while maintsining wages; the party which stands for equal rights, for cathartic to civil freedom and for personal lib. them. 25c, erty; the party which is opposed to religious proscription and intoler-ance and which assures to every man he religious liberty guaranteed him by the constitution.

At this point, time being up, the train began to move and the speech came to an abrupt end. Cheer after cheer went up from the crowd, the Senator bowing his acknowledgements and it was not until he stepped back into the car that the enthusiastic Democrats ceased to cheer for the Empire State's next Governor.

HYMENEAL.

Decker-Dunnlag.

Miss Edith Cole Dunning, daugh ter of Mrs. James A. Clark, and Mr. Edward Madden Decker were married at 5:30 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, by Rev. David J. Evans, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, No. 89 Highland avenue. Only the relatives and most intimate friends of the contracting parties were present during the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Carrie Van Wormer, of Port Jervis, as bridesmaid. Pretty little Louise Corwin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Corwin, was maid of honor.

The best man was Mr. Fred S.

A very large number of invitations had been issued to the reception, and those present at the marriage ceremony had barely finished their congratulations when the guests invited to the reception began to arrive. For over an hour Mr. and Mrs. Decker received the congratulations and good wishes of their friends.

There were in all about 200 guests present at the reception.

The wedding supper, arranged by the bride's mother and served by colored waiters, was a marvel of culinary taste and skill.

The bride was strikingly handsome in her bridal gown of white satin, trimmed with pearl passementerie and Duchesse lace, made with princess train and decollete bodice. She wore a bridal veil held in place by orange blossoms and a diamond pin. Suspended from her neck was a beautiful diamond pendant, the gift of the groom.

Her traveling dress was of brown cloth, trimmed with velvet to match. Her cloak was black velvet, with jet trimmings.

Miss Van Wormer, the bridesmald, wore a heavy white silk gown, trim med with Duchesse lace, with dia mond ornaments, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. J. A. Clark, the bride's mother, wore black satin trimmed with steel passementerie. Mrs. Elsie F. Decker, the groom's mother, wore black moire trimmed with black jet. The little maid of honor, Louise Corwin, were white accordeon plaited

The house was beautifully decorated with smilax, palms, feros and chrysanthemums, under the direction of Mrs. George S. Belding. The fair bride was the recipient of very many beautiful and costly gifts Mr. and Mra. Decker left on the 9:25 train for Port Jervis. They passed through Middletown, this morning on train'38, on their way to New York. A large party of friends was at the station to greet them. Oc returning from their wedding purney, which will be of ten days' duration, they will take up their residence with the bride's parents, Mr. Decker, who has been in charge of the Orange County Milk Association's bottling establishment at Vernon, N. J., has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the condensery at Goshen, and will enter on the discharge of his new duties on his return from his weiding trip.

Ketcham-Tuthill,

Miss Ettie M. Tuthill, daughter of Mrs. Margaret A. Tuthill, of Cottage street, and Mr. John Ketcham, a well known carpenter of this city, were married at 7:30 o'clock last evening, by Rev. Dr. Darwood, at the M. E. parsonage. The young couple will reside for the present at No. 24 Hanford street.

GOT THE SPEECHES MIXED.

A Chauncey M. Bepew Speech That Depew Did Not Deliver.

A New York Herald man was on board of Mr. Depew's special train, yesterday, and this morning that paper publishes what purports to be an account of the trip. No one who heard Mr. Depew will recognize even one sentence in the published speech which the correspondent says was delivered in Middletown, and the most natural explanation of the discrepancy is the possibility of a "mix up" of manuscript. Or, may be, the correspondent got hold of the speech which Mr. Stivers said Ben "Odle" had up his sleeve, and rather than transcribe his stenographic notes, sent "Odle's" speech along to save time.

Goshen's Greeting to Senator Hill--This Evening's Doings-Shot a Bog -Improvements at the Gas Works-Other Notes.

From our Regular Correspondent.

-The depot platform and the space about it were packed, yesterday afternoon, on the arrival of train 30 by an enthusiastic crowd, eager to see the next Governor. Senator Hill had not expected to speak here, but the tumultuous shouts of "Hill! Hill!" which filled the air as soon the train stopped, soon brought him out on the platform, and, in the short stop that the train made, acknowledged the hearty reception accorded him, and spoke a few words of encouragement and good cheer. He was heartily cheered as the train left the station.

RALLYING FOR DEMOCRACY.

Rousing Meetings in Port Jervis and Newburgh-Able Speeches by Senator Hill-Crowds of Enthusiastic Demo-

The Democrats of Port Jervis and Newburgh turned out in large numbers, yesterday afternoon and evening, to welcome and cheer their candidate for Governor, Senator David B, Hill.

Lea's Opera House in Port Jervis was packed to the doors long before the time arrived for the Senator to speak, and hundreds of people were turned away, unable to gain admission, Ex-Assemblyman McCormick opened the meeting, which was presided over by John W. Lyon, Esq. who delivered a short introductory address. Senator Hill spoke for more than an hour, and no point of the issues of the campaign was left untouched. Hon, Eugene S. Ives, candidate for Congress, also address. ed the meeting.

At Newburgh, Senator Hill was also greeted by one of the largest crowds of enthusiastic Democrats ever assembled in that city. The Academy of Music could not begin to hold the people who clamored for admission, and a large overflow meeting was held in the Lander street rink.

Michael Donohue, Chairman of the Democratic City Committee, of Newburgh, opened the meeting. Ex-Mayor John J. S. McCroskery preeided at the Academy meeting and introduced Mr. Hill. His speech was greeted with applause and cheers.

Mr. Hill also addressed the overflow meeting at the rink, where he was most enthusiastically welcomed. He left for New York on a late train, and will speak to-night at Schenectady.

George W. Davidson First to Take Vowr In a New Religious Order.

Mr. George W. Davidson who was is now Brother Aloysius. His friend, Mr. Joseph Tebbutts, is Brother Joseph, and these are the first of a New York organization of medical monks. Every general reader has noted the tendency of late years among Protestants to establish orders of a religious and charitable nature, to take vows and all that sort of thing, and this new order is designed for nursing and simple medical work among the poor. The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, at Park avenue and Eighty-second street, New York city, is the home of the new order, and the novitiates took their vows before and made their promises to the rector, Rev. William E. Johnson.

Only seven persons were present besides the novitiates and church officials. After the usual afternoon services the two devotees knelt before the altar rail. Father Johnson reminded them that they were to devote their entire time to the work of the order, and in the intervals of nursing to study medicine and religion, and that they were to take vows of poverty, obedience and celibacy. He then said:

"Do you promise that from this day until the feast of the circumcision of Our Blessed Lord you will live according to that rule of life which I have laid down for you, and do you make this promise with the aim of so advancing the kingdom of Christ and so doing his will that you may be considered worthy of a more extended consecration to a religious life?"

The novitiates answered in unison: "I will, by God's help."

The service ended with a few prayers and a litany. This yow only binds them for three months. At the end of that time, if so minded, they will take the vows for six months, then for one year, and then the final vows will be taken, and if the bishop approves the order will be founded and known as the Order of the Good Samaritan. Mr. Tibbutts is an Englishman by birth and Mr. Davidson a New Englander. The former worked in this I ne in the parish of St. Albans, London.

The convention was the eighteenth in the history of the organization, the objects of which are to take the sting out of hostile legislation, devise plans for the betterment of the trade and promote good fellowship among the members. The association was organized in 1876 as the Western Wholesale Druggists' association and embraced at the time only the trade west of the Alleghanies, but the benefits that resulted were so apparent to the entire wholesale drug trade that in 1882 the eastern men joined, and the name was changed to the

It is said that with the possible exception of the National Bankers' association there is not another business organization in the country that represents as much wealth in the aggregate as the National Wholesale Druggists' association. The members are said to represent hundreds of millions of dollars. The association embraces the jobbing and manufacturing druggists of the United States and Canada, the manufacturers of chemicals and all the manufacturers of proprietary medicines. There are 314 active and 218 associate members of the association, a number of whom represont European houses. At each convention a banquet is held, where wit, wisdom and an elaborate menu furnish entertainment for the delegates. At the recent convention in New York one of the druggists made quite a hit in his speech at the banquet when he said, "I care not who makes the laws of the nation so long as I make the falls."

THE CRISIS IN RUSSIA.

Great Interests Hang on the Health of the Czar. Alexander III of Russia is a very sick the Mediterranean, in which case there will be a regency, the czarowitz or crown prince being guided by a council of state. The average American is moved to I a sneer or smile of good natured contempt when he reads that all THE CZAROWITZ. Europe is profoundly affected and many millions tremble with dread at the supposedly fatal illness of one man, but there is something very pitiful about it. The government of Russia is arbitrary and despotic, more Asiatic than European, and Alexander III has been the worst ruler it has had this century, and now every one is asking about his oldest son and probable successor, the czarowitz.

Reports about him are very contradictory. His father openly admits that he is disappointed if not disgusted with him, and if there was time the second son, Grand Duke George, would be made the successor, as can be done in Russia. Another account owns that the young man is extremely liberal and likes the Germans; that he will, when czar, at once inaugurate constitutional reforms and make Russia a free and progressive country. Still another account is that he is liberally inclined, but lacks the ability to carry out any policy. He was born in May, 1868, is remarkably well educated and has traveled a great deal, but lacks the strength and stature of his father and the Romanoffs generally.

His marriage has bothered the diplomats mightily. He fell desperately in love with a lady near the court, but his parents peremptorily stopped his advances in that direction and selected a semiroyal bride for him. That match, however, was broken off for reasons of state, and another was made with the Princess Alice of Darmstadt, her family agreeing that she should join the Orthodox Greek church. Then an opera dancer made trouble for awhile, and by the time that was settled his father's sickness caused the marriage to be postponed. What a miserable time those monarchs do have anyhow! Alexander III has been literally driven insane by chronic fear.

A NOVELIST FOR CONGRESS.

"ALBERT ROSS."

name, Linn Boyd Porter, is familiar to very few people because he veils his identity under the nom de plume of "Albert Ross." His books would hardly meet the approval of the purchasing committee of a Sunday school library, but he writes them to sell, and they do sell by the hundred thousand. The titles of a few-"Thou Shalt Not," "His Private Character," "Thy Neighbor's Wife" and "Her Husband's Friend"suggest the field in fiction that has yielded Mr. Porter a fortune. Half a dozen years ago Porter edited a paper in Cambridge, but he finally sold out and joined the staff of the Boston Herald. About this time he completed his first novel, "Thou Shalt Not," but modesty prevented him from attempting to secure its publication for several years. At last he sent it to a New York publisher, who placed it on the market, where it made an instantancous hit. Other books of similar character followed in rapid succession, and it is said that nearly 1,000,000 copies of the Albert Ross novels have been sold. Mr. Porter lives in Cambridge, where he is looked upon as a man worth several hundred thousand dollars, nearly all of which he has made from the sale of his stories. He has erected five big apartment houses in Cambridge, which yield him an annual rental, it is said, of about $12,000. He has also built a handsome dermitory for the use of Harvard students. He has been considerable of a traveler since he gained fortune with his pen and has spent much time in Europe and Africa seeking inspiration for new stories. He lives part of the time in Paris and succeeds in getting a great deal of enjoyment out of life. His wife died some time ago, and his family consists of two daughters, who are young ladies.

A Bounty For Male Eels.

A curious prize is offered by the Bavarian National Institute For Fish Culture-namely, the sum of 100 marks (£5) for every male river cel which has attained the length of from 55 to 60 centimeters. The offer is the result of a late controversy between two experts, Dr. von Brunn of Hamburg and the fish inspector, Vogel, of Harburg.

WILSON TALKS.

Y Name is Wilson; I do an insurance business on LaSalle street, in Chicago Ill., and I live in Evanston, Ill. Evanston is what was originally a scattering population on a pretty point on Lake Michigan, esteemed years ago far from the city of Chicago, but now one of the varied towns which may go within it by vote of the population. I am married and have a wife and one child. That child is a boy (I suppose I should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, and so divert his course that he may succeed in life. I have studied a great deal upon the subject. My own experience would not be of great value, because I have succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I own the house and lot upon which I live, and am feeling perfectly safe in meeting the exigencies of the year. I want the boy to take a broader view than I did to be a bigger man in the world. I have studied how to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well as far as the preliminaries go. Now. I have thought over what I a bigger man in the world. I have studied now to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well, as far as the preliminaries go. Now, I have thought over what I should say to him and have sometimes been puzzled. I could not very well tell him what to do. I wanted to tell him what I needed but what I did not learn myself when I was of his age, and what my father did not know how to tell me, or else was not thoughtful enough to do so. I wanted to tell him how to follow the example of those who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this com-paratively new world to day. I wanted to tell him just what he had better do to get along well, and to point out to him what had been done by the people who were successful at the present time.

Of course, the record of the people of any time past would not be of so much value, because circumstances must necessarily have been different when they were alive. I feel confident, though, that if I could learn, some way and somehow, what the people who are so successful to day have done and how they did it, I could give to my boy such advice as would make his own life at least as far removed from failure as ju-tified by the natural ability he may possess,

I looked around for some authority which I might consult in order to give him the facts most essential with this idea of mine in mind, but I could find no e until I discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago bad decided to bring out a book giving the photographs of all the people who are prominent in America to day. Here was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 parts, 16 pages to each, with a recent photograph on each page of some active leading American man or woman of to-day, while underneath appears the story of that same person's life—the story telling what that person did, and how the ends attained were eventually accomplished. Here was what I wanted; here was what I needed in various ways; here was what I was certainly seeking in order to obtain the information with which to educate my boy ank secure for him that knowledge which will give him a source of thought and make him prominent in the world.

I have the first sheets of this work. It is a graphic story of America's Greatest Men and Women, told in each instance on a single page underneath a photograph of recent date, which conveys to the eye an idea of what that person is. To me the photograph tells even more than the suggestive record beneath; and yet it is odd how in each instance the correct story corresponds with the expression upon the face which is reproduced in the portrait above. I do not know how the series will end. I know very little about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know nothing about the publishers and their expectations, but I do know this: that if the series so begun should be continued to its practical, ordinary good sense end—and I don't care whether that will include 200 or 700 of America's Greatest Men and Women, which is the title of the book—I do know this, that for the ordinary, active and alert business man—I will certainly say far more for the student or the literary man, or the politician or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the man, or the pointeran or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the most valuable and the most remarkable book produced in modern history. The wonder is that some one has not thought of it before. Yet no one seems to have done so since the days of Plutarch. Plutarch knew—something. That shrewd old fellow knew that all who would get out of the drift, all who would accomplish great things, wanted to know every detail of the lives of those who had better luck or more courses or a broader brain their follows: but I am no authority or or more courage or a broader brain than their fellows; but I am no authority on these points. I only know that there is produced a second Platarch's Lives, that its biographies are shrewd, graphic and curt, and written without bias and without prejudice. I only know that there was a Plutarch—God bless the old fellow—and that there is this modern work.

This is the work I am going to give to my boy. I am going to make him read it thoroughly. The work is announced as consisting of 16 Parts, with 16 pages and 16 photographs in each part, and when bound, the whole series will make a great volume of 256 pages, the like of which has never been equaled. It is the story of the personal character of the men and women who are making the nation's history at this particular time. What a work (his is! Do, you imagine that I would miss it for my boy, or, incidentally, for myself?

She Deserved Shaking,

She looked so pretty as she stepped aboard the car that the man with a cold in his head moved into the draft to give ber plenty of room, and the conductor rang un two fares before he realized that she had given him a Canadian dime. The long legged little girl with her kept up an incessant strane of questions, but she an swered them all pleasantly. The next time the car stopped a soldierly looking lady got in, and the pretty girl blushed very much as she greeted her. .

"Is this your little sister?" the soldierly looking lady asked presently. "Do you know who I am, my dear? I am Harold's mother. I hope you like Harold."

"Oh, yes! He brings nicer candy than any of them. Only Mabel always makes me go out of the parlor to eat it." The pretty girl, with an agonized blush, membled something about "crumbs" and "The carpet."

"Quite right, my dear," replied the sol-dierly looking lady, "and it is foolish of Harold to waste his money on candy. He will need it all by and by." The pretty girl became two shades pink er and looked out of the window.

"Well, my dear," returning to the small girl, "I hope you will like me as well as Harold, but why do you look at me so closely? Is anything wrong with my bonnet?"
''No'm," with an angelic smile.

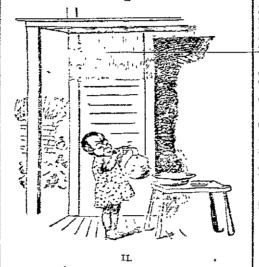

like you very much, and I don't think your nose is long at all."
"Grace!" cried the pretty girl.

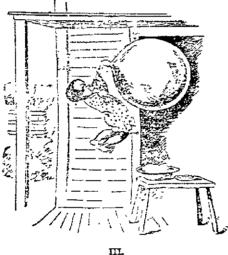

"My nose long! Mercy, child, who ever said it was?"

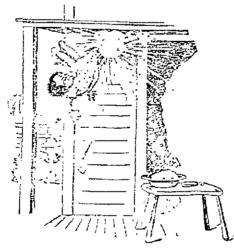

"Why, sister did. She said that when she and Harold were married you had better keep that long nose of yours out of her affairs, or she would—why, Mabel, what on earth are you stopping the car for This isn't our street."

And as the passengers in the car looked back they were pleased to see that Mabel was shaking her with all her might .-Chicago Tribune.

KNOCKED DOWN BY A TROLLEY CAR-

L Member of the Chester Band Bowled Over on West Main Street and Slightly

Charles Randall, a member of the Thester Band, was struck and knock ed down by an electric car on West Main street, this morning, sustainleft hand were lacerated.

Waalkill Engine Company, headed crossing the tracks at the junction of was officered as follows: Wickham avenue, when the car, which was in charge of Motorman Thomas Kennedy and Conductor George F. Brooks, came down West Main street at a rapid rate of speed. The noise of the band's instruments drowned the sound of the bell on the ear, and the musicians did not see their danger until the car was almost apon them. Mr. Randall heard it lel H. Bailey, Aldermen A. E. Lud-Anally, looked up and backed off the dington, Z. K. Greene, A. M. Bowler, track. The end of the car struck Supervisor N. W. Wood, ex-Superhim, however, and sent him aprawling in the mud, but fortunately he Iell outside of the rails.

All who saw the accident unite in saying that the motorman was solely President James Gavin, of McQuoids; to blame. He was running his carat a high rate of speed, and they claim siors; Assistant Foreman J. J. that he should have given the short procession the right of way.

Mr. Randall boarded the car and rode down town to the Wallkill House, where he endeavored to patch himself up. He pluckily started with his comrades in the band, but It is doubtful if he will be able to finger his instrument, to day.

A COACHMAN IN DISTRESS.

Mow an Impudent Beggar Has Been Working the Good People of the East

Within the past few days, a well appearing fellow has gone from / house to house in the eastern part of the city begging in a novel way. He rings the front door bell, inquires for the "gentleman of the house" and presents a letter which set; forth that he is a coachman in distress, which, if the "gentleman of the house" is not at home, he insists on the "lidy of the house" reading He makes his visits at times when men are at business, and at one house where he found a man at home was seen to change the letter, which leads to the belief that he makes one kind of appeal to men - and another to women.

The fellow was seen at a saloon, a night or two ago, as drunk as a lord, which would seem to indicate that the good people of the east end are widing to go down in their pockets for the relief of coachmen in dis-

> WARMLY WELCOMED AT PASSAIC. Special to the Daily Argus.

Passarc, Nov. 1.—The day is young in the celebration which this ancient town of Passaic is holding, but you bet Waalkills and Waalkills' guests are having an enjoyable time.

At the depot we were greeted with words of warmest welcome by our hosts, Passaic Steamer Company, No. 1, and by Passaic Juniors, thirty as manly little fellows as were ever clad in fire suits.

From the depot we were escorted to the city hall, where we were introduced to Mayor Walston H. Brown, after which a most inviting and varied luncheon was served with generous hand.

Stolen Ducks Recovered by Their

Shortly after midnight, Monday night, three ducks were stolen from the barn of Mr. D. L. Decker, the South street grocer. About 5 o'clock, Wednesday morning, Mrs. Conroy saw the ducks coming up Fulton street and drove them into her yard and later returned them to their owner. Whether the ducks escaped from the coop in which the thieves placed them and were making their way home or whether the thieves became frightered and released them is not known.

A CHURCH TRIAL AT ST. PAUL'S.

Mrs. E. C. Royce to Be Tried, To-morrow, on Charges of Slandering Dr Barwood,

Mrs. Elmer C. Royce, who withdrew from membership in St. Paul's Church, two months ago, but who is still within the jurisdiction of the church, since she has not used her letter by uniting with any other church, is to be tried in St. Paul's Church, to-morrow afternoon, on charges preferred by Allen Ridgeway, George W. Hull, W. H. Knapp and W. H. Foster. It is an open secret, nowever, that Rev. Dr. Darwood is the real complainant in the case.

The charges against Mrs. Royce are the circulation of false and damaging reports concerning the pastor and several members of the church. We are informed that there are five or six specifications. The whole matter at issue has its origin in the reasous given by Mrs. Royce to her friends for withdrawing from the church, she having, it is alleged, charged Dr. Darwood with conduct unbecoming a minister and a gentleman.

The trial will be before a committee selected from the membership of the church, outside of members of the official board, before which the case may be taken on appeal. A minister from cut of town will pre-

The trial will begin at 2:30 o'clock. It is not probable the public will be admitted to this love feast.

Matthews & Co. Carpet Bag Factory.

Why we make up clothing to order at less money than any other tailor is:

THE REASON

1st-We buy our cloth direct from the commission houses in full pieces. All other tailors have to buy from the jobber, and thus pay a good profit to the jobber.

2d-We do all our own cutting, having no expense for a cutter, etc., etc.

3d-We have no expense to do our tailoring business, doing it in connection with our ready-made clothing business. Suits, Overcoats and Ulacers to order from $16.50. We guarantee a a fit or we do not ask you to take the clothing.
